

WEDDINGS AT CONTINI'S AWARD WINNING RESTAURANTS AND VENUES

"THREE UNIQUE, ICONIC VENUES AVAILABLE FOR EXCLUSIVE USE IN THE HEART OF EDINBURGH"

At Victor & Carina Contini Venues we take great pride in the warmth and hospitality of our welcome and the quality of your experience with us. We expect our guests to feel like friends, and to leave us happier than when they arrived.

Our principal aim is to offer exceptionally fresh, simple, seasonal food, using the very best ingredients from Scotland's artisan suppliers and growers.

Our menus change according to the season and many of our fresh fruit and vegetables are grown in our family's one acre kitchen garden in Midlothian. This enables us to use the freshest local produce throughout the year.

As our guest, we can guarantee that your menu will showcase the finest, most flavoursome ingredients whatever time of year you choose to be married.

Our three unique Edinburgh city centre venues are available for exclusive hire.

Whether you are looking for a larger (80-240 guests), modern light feel where The Scottish Cafe would be perfect for you, or a more intimate wedding in a historic building like Cannonball House (40-80 guests), we've got you covered. Or better still – enjoy your wedding breakfast at Cannonball House and walk your guests down to the Scottish Cafe for the evening reception! We have had some fabulous weddings being piped down Ramsay Gardens where tourists are cheering and taking pictures.

For the smaller wedding parties we have two perfect private dining rooms – one for 15-40 guests at Cannonball House on the Royal Mile or the newly launched Bellavista room at Contini George Street for 10-18 guests.

Terms - Minimum numbers apply, depending on availability, new bookings only. February 2018 to December 2019.

Cannonball House

The newest addition to the Contini family, Cannonball Restaurant, on the top floor of a magnificent sixteenth century listed building, is a unique and inspiring wedding venue. The stunning dining room enjoys panoramic views of the city skyline from our next-door neighbour Edinburgh Castle, across the water to Fife and down the length of the Royal Mile. If you plan to marry at Edinburgh Castle or one of the Old Town's heritage locations, Cannonball Restaurant is perfect for an exclusive wedding breakfast in a picture postcard setting. The quality of our food is outstanding and the space itself is beautifully proportioned and luxuriously appointed. As a brand new destination for weddings it is an original and striking choice.

The small print

One of our wedding planners will arrange times for you to come and visit the venue prior to your big day to help with arrangements so that everything runs smoothly. We've listed topics for consideration alphabetically, with guidelines as to when we recommend you confirm these details (where applicable).

Deposits & invoicing

We ask for a 25% deposit to confirm and secure the space. In the unlikely event of cancellation, the deposit is non-refundable. In the coming months prior to the wedding we will be in touch with an invoice for 50% of the estimated balance and then a month prior a final invoice will be sent based on final numbers, menu and drink choices. This is payable in full ahead of your wedding.

Entertainment & Suppliers

Please let us know the names and contact details in advance for bands, DJs, photographer, florist and other supplier services you might have organised. We'll need to see PAT certificates for any equipment they are bringing in, as well as a copy of their public liability insurance. We have our own list of preferred suppliers so if you would like us to recommend any please get in touch with your event planner.

Wedding cake

Please let your wedding planner know when to expect delivery of your wedding cake, and any special instructions around safekeeping and presentation. Please note that we are only able to accept cake delivery on the day of your wedding.
